We Love Mother Nature.

We love her for all she does for us, so we strive to help her in any way we can. By upcycling waste streams to redistribute her nutrients, we enable her natural processes to function as intended. We believe this is the Humane thing to do.

Humane promotes a closed-loop system where waste products are repurposed rather than becoming environmental pollutants. Humane utilizes a pig manure as its base to help close that loop. It is rich in essential nutrients such as nitrogen, phosphorus, and potassium, which are necessary for plant growth. By using hog manure as fertilizer, these nutrients are recycled back into the soil, enriching it naturally and reducing the need for synthetic fertilizers while increasing organic matter, biological activity, and carbon sequestration.
