Our Story

At Extol Accessories Ltd., we wholeheartedly embrace the transformative power of art to enrich lives and uplift communities. As a family-owned company, we have been making a positive impact for over 40 years, our mission is actively contributing to job opportunities and driving educational initiatives in Haiti. Since Beadworx' inception in 2015 under the Extol Accessories Ltd. umbrella, our commitment has been unwavering in creating a brighter future for Haitian artisans.

Artisans with their remarkable expertise, bring life to these handmade figurines by bending and wrapping wire frames, adorned with vibrant glass beads. The result is a unique collection of products that not only infuse color, brightness, and a touch of magic into any space but also serve as a testament to their unparalleled craftsmanship. Each piece is truly special and one-of-a-kind.

Beadworx stands out as a distinctive business. What sets it apart is this whimsical folk-art traces back to Haiti's African ancestors and was introduced to Haiti in 2015 by our company. The first few artists who learned this intricate technique still work with Beadworx today. As experts, they help train new artists interested in learning and expanding the community of beaders.

We take immense pride in the difference we've made in Haiti, a country marked by challenges from the 2010 earthquake, periodic hurricanes, an unstable government, gang violence, and intricate logistical hurdles. In a nation full of complexities, we've navigated with perseverance, strategic growth, and an unwavering commitment to our mission.

Our handmade products symbolize more than just art – they represent an opportunity for sustainable change in our beloved Haiti. We understand that people in Haiti depend on us for their livelihoods, highlighting the vital connection between our business and the well-being of the community.

Our story is one of overcoming challenges, fostering talent, and creating opportunities. Your decision to include our purposeful products in your inventory sparks meaningful conversations with patrons, creating positive change and celebrating the unique stories behind each handcrafted piece.

We invite you to join us in making a difference in Haiti!
