100% Recycled

Our use of Social Plastic® has prevented the equivalent of 4.6 million plastic bottles from reaching our oceans.

What is Social Plastic®?

Social Plastic® creates social and environmental impact in areas with high levels of poverty and plastic pollution by turning plastic waste into currency. Their mission is to encourage people to recycle plastic through collection in exchange for money, goods or services needed in their community. This recycled plastic not only helps reduce pollution and poverty, but is also turned into awesome products like the Finley planters.

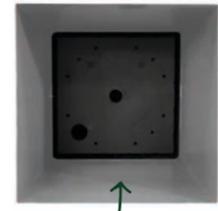

We are proud to partner with an organization that is truly making a difference.

Cleaning coastal communities one watering can at a time.

The Rhino watering can is made out of 100% recycled material, which also includes Social Plastic®.

Our use of Social Plastic® aims to help stop plastic pollution while reducing poverty. Some of our planters are made using Social Plastic® from Plastic Bank®—an organization whose mission is to help clean up the world and build communities in the process.
