Since 1989, Liberty Garden Products has pioneered new and smarter ways to store garden hoses. Liberty Garden metal hose reel storage products have set the bar in quality and craftsmanship in our industry. That's why you can count on our dependable products to assist in turning your lawn and garden project into the pride of any neighborhood.

Some of the benefits of choosing Liberty Garden Products:

Style: With styles ranging from classic to contemporary, Liberty Garden Products are designed to work for many intended tasks. We use the finest materials to create beautiful and practical designs that will surely add class to any home or garden.

Craftsmanship: This is what sets Liberty Garden apart and the heart of everything we do. Many hours of thought goes into each unique metal product we produce.

Lasting Quality: Liberty Garden makes sure all our hose storage products are tough and can handle the rigors of most outdoor elements. Using powder coated steel, cast aluminum, brass and galvanized fittings our products have stood the test of time over our rival plastic competitors.

Live Customer Service: Liberty Garden is proud to provide all customer support in the United States.

Replacement Parts: Easy and modern ordering system in place for replacement parts.

Due to these valued attributes, people from all walks of life have come to rely on Liberty Garden to provide years of satisfaction.

basics™

Liberty Garden introduces our fully retractable hose reel line. Pull to release the durable PVC 1/2" hose. With a slight tug, the hose is easily drawn back into the box with no bending or cranking. Mounting brackets allow for a 180-degree swivel. An adjustable hose stopper keeps excess hose out of work space and locks the reel into place at different intervals.
